Be open to your dreams, people. Embrace that distant shore. Because our mortal journey is over all too soon.

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Timothy Patrick Andrews who was born in Modesto, CA. on December 15, 1962 and passed away on January 22, 2007 at the age of 44. You will live forever in our memories and hearts. Tim was married to Darla and the two of them had Jeffery and Justin. Jeffery and Justin both have children now, Philip is Jeffery's son and Justin Jr. is Justin's son. Tim also has 3 other grandchildren from Jeffery's wife, their names are David, Jenny and Connie. Both of Tim's youngest grandchildren have recently turned 1 year old. After Tim and Darla divorced, Tim met Sheila they were married in 1999 and moved from California to Missouri. Sheila has three children, Anthony, Jessica and Dustin, they all became a family. Dustin was just 7 months old when his Mom and Tim got together. Tim raised Dustin and became a Father to all three kids. Tim was working on his truck the morning he passed away. Sheila tried to revive him but it was too late. We still don't know for sure if it was a heart attack. He was the youngest in our family and the last we expected to go. We miss him so much! He was layed to rest in Ava, Missouri on January 27th, 2007. Our family here in California had a Memorial Service for him at the Hickman Community

Church in Hickman, Ca. I would like to dedicate this site to Tim's son's Jeffery and Justin Andrews. Thank you for visiting...

This is a picture of Tim and Marlin I found recently. It has been 3 months today that Tim has been gone. I still think about the times when Tim was here and we were all wrapped up with our own lives that we didn't seem to have time for each other. If I could take those days back I would go to visit him, always hug him when I saw him and I would tell him I loved him. The sad fact is I can't go back so I have to live everyday thinking about how I wish we could have been closer and about the last time I saw him I just barely spoke to him. I know it will take time to heal, but I still miss him like it happened yesterday. Thank you to everyone who visits this place, it means alot to all of us that you care.

Susie

What can I say, Tim was my youngest brother and boy did we fight. When he was little he was so cute, and then he grew up. He was very bull headed and very high strung. Him, Darla and the kids lived near me when my kids were small, we got along some of the time and I cherish those times and regret the times we didn't get along. He had such a big heart and a even bigger temper, but I loved him just the same. One time Mom went on a trip so I went over to cook for Dad, well Tim was there so I made enchiladas, Tim was so happy that they tasted like Taco Bell enchiladas he keep telling me over and over again. I'm glad he liked my cooking even though it tasted like fast food. I never thought I would feel this sad over losing Tim but it has been so difficult. He had moved to Missiouiri four years ago and I hadn't spoken to him the whole time. I did run into Mike our cousin two months before Tim died and Mike said he talked to Tim everyday. I told Mike to tell Tim hi for me. At the Memorial Service I asked Mike if he had told Tim I said hi and he said he did. It made me so happy, I'm so glad he knew I was thinking of him. You just never know when it's someone you loves time to go. Always tell them you love them and always stay in touch. Remember we are never promised tomorrow...

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, mottled background of warm, earthy tones, including shades of beige, tan, and light brown. The roses are rendered in a soft, slightly faded style, blending into the background.

December 15, 1962

Born in California Modesto on December 15, 1962.

January 22, 2007

Passed away on January 22, 2007 at the age of 44.

February 19, 2007

April 1, 2007

Tim was born to Dearl and Polly Andrews on December 15, 1962. He was the youngest of 8 kids. His sister pam was killed in a car accident when Tim was 5 years old. He loved to work on cars and get a great deal on spare car parts, something he learned from his Dad. He was a really cute little boy. Mom used to make his favorite dish, creamed noodles. While the rest of us ate eggs, bacon and toast, Tim would request his favorite. We all spoiled him and sometimes were a little jealous of all of the attention he got. When Tim grew up and married Darla they had two boys, Jeff and Justin. They were married for about 15 years. After they were divorced, Tim met Sheila. Sheila had three children of her own, her youngest son, Dustin was only 7 months old, so Tim raised him and became a Father to her other two Anthony and Jessica also. They moved to Ava, Missouri about 4 years ago. Jeff and Justin eventually moved there too. They were all one big family. Losing Tim was saddest thing that could have ever happened. The Family will never be the same.
